INTRODUCTION

Goatly is a unique and exciting meme token that has taken the cryptocurrency world by storm. Inspired by the popular Doge meme, this token has garnered significant attention and a strong community of supporters.

At its core, Goatly is built on blockchain technology, specifically leveraging the power of the Binance Smart Chain (BSC). Its decentralized nature allows for fast and secure transactions, making it an efficient and user-friendly choice for investors and meme enthusiasts alike.

to provide a fun and profitable experience for our players, to create a healthy and excited community around blockchain gaming and build an ecosystem of Play to Earn systems to meet the needs of all gamers around the world.

PURPOSE THIS PAPER

The intention of this paper is not to be a deep technical dive, but rather an overview of the existing gameplay and a vision of the future CryptoBlades. This includes gameplay details, information on NFTs, the games economy, specifically tokenomics, and how the Binance Smart Chain can enhance and provide a rewarding experience to the end user. This is a living document and the team holds all rights to make adjustment as seen fit.

COMMUNITY AND SOCIAL FEATURES

Players can join communities, collaborate with others, and participate in events hosted on Web3 platforms. Community-driven content creation, such as fan art and lore, can be rewarded with GTF

TOKEN BUYBACK

During the presale phase of your token on the Goatly platform, a buyback program is implemented as a unique feature to incentivize early investors and ensure the token's long-term growth and stability.
